Tasting Hardtack

1. Consider this: YOU are a member of the crew on a whaling ship. You've been on the ship for 3 months since you left your home on Martha's Vineyard, and you haven't seen land since. Guess what's for breakfast today: hardtack and tea.

Use at least two adjectives to answer each question.

What does the hardtack look like?

What does the hardtack smell like?

What does hardtack taste like?

How does the hardtack make you feel?

2. Consider this: You have been on a whaling ship for three years and it's finally time to sail home to Martha's Vineyard. You leave the ship and walk home to your house. Your home is warm and smells like fresh bread. Your family greets you and offers you fresh bread and tea.

Use at least three adjectives to answer each question.

What does the bread look like?

_____

_____

What does the bread smell like?

_____

_____

What does the bread taste like?

_____

_____-_____

How does the bread make you feel?

_____

3. Use this space to make a Venn Diagram to show the similarities and differences between the describing words you used for the hardtack and the fresh bread.
Venn Diagram